

The Pleacher Family Christmas

Can you match the 15 members of the Pleacher family with their favorite Christmas song, their favorite beverage, and the state in which they were born?

The members of the Pleacher family are hard of hearing so their favorite songs may have some different words.

Each family member likes a different Christmas song and each person enjoys a different beverage.

However, multiple family members were born in the same states.

1. The person who sings "Oh, what fun it is to ride with one horse, soap and hay" was born west of the Mississippi along with his brother and the person who drinks Slug-O-Cola.
2. The three people born in New York drink Thai Tea, Hot Fresh Coffee, and Blue Milk.
