

3-D Word Search

By David Pleacher

Can you find at least thirty words in the three dimensional block of letters below?

There are at least eight math-related words.

A word may start at any letter, but must proceed along circles that are connected by straight lines.

A model of this figure could be constructed out of tinker toys to make it easier to visualize.

